

NEFARIOUS

“Ready for round two?”
“I didn’t know it was a fight”
“That’s why you’re losing”

On the day of his scheduled execution, a convicted serial killer gets a psychiatric evaluation during which he claims he is a demon, and further claims that before their time is over, the psychiatrist will commit three murders of his own.

Can you help me bring a Christian psychological thriller to Katoomba?

I don't usually ask people to come with me to see an MA-rated movie, but this one has a chance at bringing a Christian world-view to a new audience, if we can sell 39 tickets - we're already on our way, but we still need help!

If you're concerned about the content of the film, here are the details from Movieguide.org:

Foul Language: Three light obscenities, and a character appeals to God for help, and his informal prayer is answered positively

Violence: Extreme execution scene, a condemned man grabs another man and threatens to strangle him with his chains, there's a scene where a man jumps out of a high story window, a man waves a gun around and turns it on himself, and a man tries to stop his girlfriend from going through with an abortion of their baby, but he fails to reach her in time

Sex: No sex scenes, but man's girlfriend gets an abortion when he fails to stop her in time

Nudity: No nudity

Alcohol Use: No alcohol use

Smoking and/or Drug Use and

Abuse: Two characters smoke cigarettes, but there are no drugs; and,

Miscellaneous Immorality:

Demon refers to his "master," Satan, expresses jealousy, hostility and hatred toward God, Jesus and mankind.
