

Singing Workshops with Veronica Brandt

One-day workshops 9am-3pm

We will cover:

- Basics of voice production, breath control, placement
- Pitch awareness, introducing solfege
- Exploring rhythm through body percussion
- Singing melodies together
- Introducing harmonies through simple rounds

Music is drawn from traditional Australian songs, folk songs and medieval sacred music. Students get to take home booklets of the music included.

The day finishes with a little performance of what we have learned.

Workshops take place in my home. Parents are encouraged to attend with their kids. Please bring a packed lunch.

No previous singing experience necessary.

Cost for the day is $100 per student.

I am applying for registration as a Creative Kids Provider.
