℣. O God, incline ✠ unto my aid.

℟. O Lord, make haste to help me.

Let us pray.

O Lord Jesus Christ, Redeemer of the world, who, being the Word of God, made known through the mouth of Thy blessed Apostle Paul that we have no lasting city, but must here ever seek one in the future, and who enjoined the blessed Apostles that going forth to preach the word of God, they should take but a staff, we humbly beseech Thee, bless ✠ these bags or wallets to be fastened to the side for the love of Thy Name, in the likeness of humble armour, and these staves of support, so that those carrying them as indications of pilgrimage and for the support of their bodies, may gain by Thy blessing the heavenly graces and reward inhering in them, and just as Thou didst bless the rod of Aaron when it repelled the perfidy of the rebellious Jews, bless ✠ also these Thy servants through these insignias, which, to Thine honour and reverence, they desire to from our hands and carry to Thy venerable shrine; absolve them from all sins so that in the day of judgement they may be worthy to be placed at Thy right hand. ℟. Amen.

O God of infinite mercy and unending majesty, whom neither distance nor time can separate from those over whom Thou watchest, be present to Thy servants here who are faithful to Thee and in the paths they are about to journey, we beseech Thee, be their leader and companion; may no adversaries hurt them in any way, nor any difficulties obstruct them, may all health and fortune be granted to them, that by the work of Thy right hand, whatever they seek by just desired may be rapidly brough to fruition. Through Christ Our Lord. ℟. Amen.

℣. Let us proceed in peace.
℟. In the name of Christ. Amen.

Firmly I believe

FIRMLY I believe and truly
God is Three and God is One;
And I next acknowledge duly
Manhood taken by the Son.

2. And I trust and hope most fully
In that manhood crucified;
And each thought and deed unruly
Do to death as he has died.

3. Simply to his grace and wholly
Light and life and strength belong,
And I love supremely, solely,
Him the holy, him the strong.

4. And I hold in veneration,
For the love of him alone,
Holy Church as his creation,
and her teachings as his own.

5. Adoration ay be given,
With and through th'angelic host,
To the God of earth and heaven,
Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

To be a pilgrim

Who would true valour see, let him come hither;
One here will constant be, come wind come weather.
There's no discouragement shall make him once relent
His first avowed intent to be a pilgrim.

2. Whoso beset him round with dismal stories,
Do but themselves confound;
his strength the more is.
No lion can him fright,
he'll with a giant fight,
But he will have the right
to be a pilgrim.

3. Hobgoblin nor foul fiend
can daunt his spirit:
He knows he at the end
shall life inherit.
Then fancies fly away;
he'll not fear what men say;
He'll labour night and day
to be a pilgrim.

4. O guide our minds with thy blest light,

5. Far from us drive our deadly foe;
True peace unto us bring;
And through all perils lead us safe
Beneath thy sacred wing.

Thrice blessed Three in One.

Entire and whole and perfect,

The love that never falters,
the love that pays the price,
The love that makes undaunted
the final sacrifice.

2. And there's another country,
I've heard of long ago,
Most dear to them that love her,
most great to them that know;

Her fortress is a faithful heart,
her pride is suffering;
And soul by soul and silently
her shining bounds increase,
And her ways are ways of gentleness
and all her paths are Peace.

Jesus, my Lord

Jesus, my Lord, my God, my all,
How can I love Thee as I ought?
And how revere this wondrous gift,
So far surpassing hope or thought?
Sweet Sacrament, we Thee adore;
Oh, make us love Thee more and more.

2. Had I but Mary's sinless heart
To love Thee with, my dearest King,
Oh, with what bursts of fervent praise
Thy goodness, Jesus, would I sing!
Sweet Sacrament, we Thee adore;
Oh, make us love Thee more and more.

Jerusalem, my happy home

Part 1.

JERUSALEM, my happy home,
When shall I come to thee?
When shall my sorrows have an end?
Thy joys when shall I see?

2. O happy harbour of the saints!
O sweet and pleasant soil!
In thee no sorrow may be found,
No grief, no care, no toil.

3. In thee no sickness may be seen,
No hurt, no ache, no sore;
In thee there is no dread of death,
But life for evermore.

4. No dampish mist is seen in thee,
No cold nor darksome night;
There every soul shines as the sun;
There God himself gives light.

5. There lust and lucre cannot dwell;
There envy bears no sway;
There is no hunger, heat, nor cold,
But pleasure every way.

6. Jerusalem, Jerusalem,
God grant I once may see
Thy endless joys, and of the same
Partaker ay may be!

7. Thy walls are made of precious stones,
Thy bulwarks diamonds square;
Thy gates are of right orient pearl;
Exceeding rich and rare;

8. Thy turrets and thy pinnacles
With carbuncles do shine;
Thy very streets are paved with gold,
Surpassing clear and fine;

9. Thy houses are of ivory,
Thy windows crystal clear;
Thy tiles are made of beaten gold
O God that I were there.

10. Within thy gates no thing doth come
That is not passing clean,
No spider's web, no dirt, no dust,
No filth may there be seen.

11. Ah, my sweet home, Jerusalem,
Would God I were in thee!
Would God my woes were at an end,
Thy joys that I might see!

Part 2.

JERUSALEM, my happy home,
When shall I come to thee?
When shall my sorrows have an end?
Thy joys when shall I see?

2. Thy saints are crowned with glory great;
They see God face to face;
They triumph still, they still rejoice:
Most happy is their case.

3. We that are here in banishment,
Continually do moan;
We sigh and sob, we weep and wail,
Perpetually we groan.

4. Our sweet is mixed with bitter gall,
Our pleasure is but pain,
Our joys scarce last the looking on,
Our sorrows still remain.

5. But there they live in such delight,
Such pleasure and such play,
As that to them a thousand years
Doth seem as yesterday.

6. Thy vineyards and thy orchards are
Most beautiful and fair,
Full furnished with trees and fruits,
Most wonderful and rare;

7. Thy gardens and thy gallant walks
Continually are green;
There grow such sweet and pleasant flowers
As nowhere else are seen.

8. There's nectar and ambrosia made,
There's musk and civet sweet;
There many a fair and dainty drug
Is trodden underfeet.

9. There cinnamon, there sugar grows,
There nard and balm abound;
What tongue can tell, or heart conceive,
The joys that there are found?

10. Jerusalem, my happy home,
When shall I come to thee?
When shall my sorrows have an end?
Thy joys when shall I see?

Part 3.

Jerusalem, my happy home,
When shall I come to thee?
When shall my sorrows have an end?
Thy joys when shall I see?

2. Quite through the streets with silver sound
The flood of life doth flow,
Upon whose banks on every side
The wood of life doth grow.

3. There trees for evermore bear fruit,
And evermore do spring;
There evermore the angels sit,
And evermore do sing;

4. There David stands with harp in hand
As master of the choir
Ten thousand times that man were blest
That might this music hear.

5. Our Lady sings Magnificat
With tunes surpassing sweet;
And all the virgins bear their parts,
Sitting around her feet.

6. Te Deum doth Saint Ambrose sing,
Saint Austin doth the like;
Old Simeon and Zachary
Have not their songs to seek.

7. There Magdalene hath left her moan,
And cheerfully doth sing
With blessed saints, whose harmony
In every street doth ring.

8. Jerusalem, my happy home,
Would God I were in thee!
Would God my woes were at an end,
Thy joys that I might see!

Glory be to Jesus

GLORY be to Jesus
Who in bitter pains
Pour'd for me the life-blood
From his sacred veins.

2. Grace and life eternal
In that blood I find:
Blest be his compassion,
Infinitely kind.

3. Blest through endless ages
Be the precious stream,
Which from endless torment
Doth the world redeem.

4. There the fainting spirit
Drinks of life her fill;
There as in a fountain
Laves herself at will.

5. Abel's blood for vengeance
Pleaded to the skies;
But the blood of Jesus
For our pardon cries.

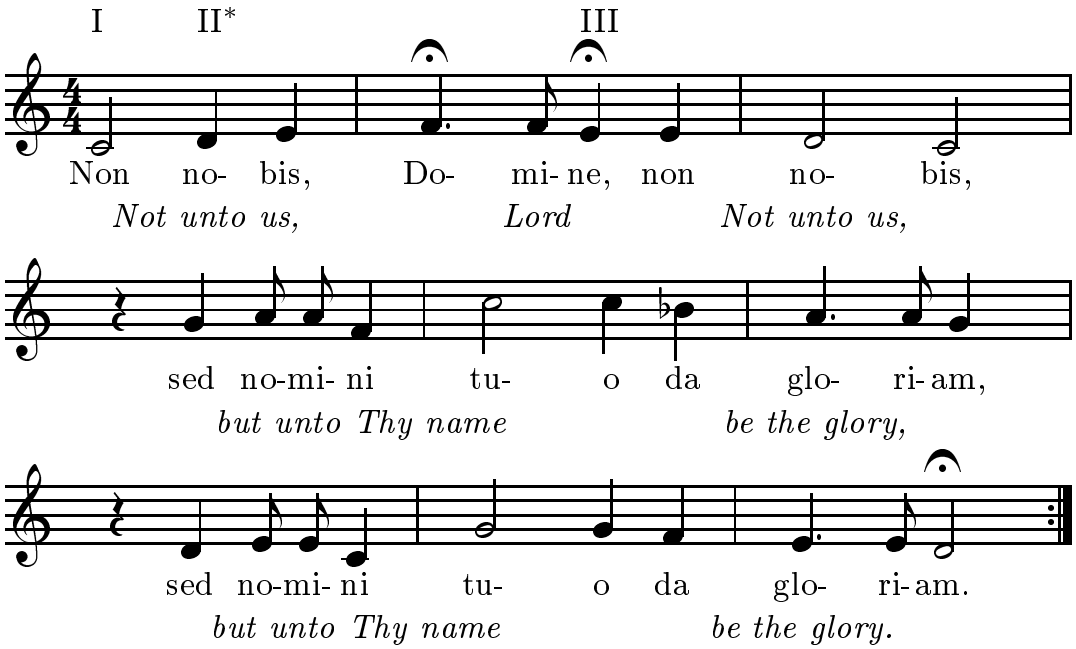
6. Oft as it is sprinkled
On our guilty hearts,
Satan in confusion
Terror–struck departs.

7. Oft as earth exalting
Wafts its praise on high,
Hell with horror trembles;
Heav'n is filled with joy.

8. Lift ye, then, your voices;
Swell the mighty flood;
Louder still and louder,
Praise the Precious Blood.

Tr. E. Caswall, 1814-78

Non nobis, Domine



* The second part comes in on 'g' and is sung a fourth below.

Help of Christians

Help of Christians, guard this land,
From assault or inward stain;
Let it be what Christ has planned,
His new Eden where you reign.

2. Teach us that in Christ thy Son
Lies the wisdom to be free;
For the Cross, which we would shun,
Is man's Tree of Liberty.

3. Should the powers of hell arise,
And our peace be trampled down,
In that night of blood and lies
Show us still thy twelve starred crown.

4. Take from us the coward heart,
Fleeting will, divided mind,
Give us sight to play our part,
Though the world around is blind.

5. Image of the risen life
Shining in eternity,
Glimmer through our earthly strife,
Draw us to thy victory.

Ave Maria - a round

Hail Redeemer

Hail Redeemer, King Divine,
Priest and Lamb, the throne is Thine,
King whose reign shall never cease,
Prince of everlasting peace.

Ant. Angels, saints and nations sing,
Praised be Jesus Christ, our King,
Lord of life, earth sky and sea,
King of love on Calvary.

2. King, whose name creation thrills,
Rule our minds, our hearts, our wills,
Till in peace each nation rings
With Thy praises King of Kings.

3. King most holy, King of truth,
Guide the lowly, guard the youth;
Christ Thou King of glory bright,
Be to us eternal light.

4. Shepherd-King, o'er mountain steep,
Homeward bring the wandering sheep;
Shelter in one royal fold
States and kingdoms new and old.

Faireft Lord Jesus

Fairest Lord Jesus,
Lord of all creation,
O Thou of God and man the son;
Thee will I cherish,
Thee will I honour,
Thou art my soul's delight and crown.

2. Fair are the meadows,
fairer still the woodlands,
robed in the verdure and bloom of spring.
Jesus is fairer,
Jesus is purer,
Who makes the saddest heart to sing.

3. Fair are the flowers,
fairer still the children,
in all the freshness of youth arrayed;
yet is their beauty
fading and fleeting;
Lord Jesus, Thine will never fade.

4. Fair is the moonlight,
fairer still the sunshine,
fair is the shimmering starry sky:
Jesus shines brighter,
Jesus shines clearer
than all the heavenly host on high.

5. All fairest beauty heavenly and earthly,
wondrously, Jesus, is found in Thee;
none can be nearer,
fairer of dearer
than Thou, my Saviour, art to me.

6. Beautiful Saviour!
Lord of all the nations!
Son of God and Son of Man!
Glory and honor,
praise, adoration,
Now and forever more be Thine.

How God the nations' king should be;
For God is reigning from the tree.

How bright in royal robe it stood–
The purple of a Saviour's blood!

5. Upon its arms, like balance true,
He weighed the price for sinners due,
The price which none but he could pay,
And spoiled the spoiler of his prey.

Crux fidelis

Láuream certáminis,
Et super Crúcis tropháeo
Dic triúmphum nóbilem:
Quáliter Redémptor órbis
Immolátus vícerit. Crux.

1. Sing, my tongue, the Saviour's glory,
Tell His triumph far and wide;
Tell aloud the famous story
Of His body crucified;
How upon the cross a victim,
Vanquishing in death, He died.

2. De paréntis protoplásti
Fráude Fáctor cóndolens,
Quando pómi noxiális
In nécem mórsu rúit:
Ipse lígnum tunc notávit,
Damna lígn*i* ut solveret. Dúlce.

2. Eating of the tree forbidden,
Man had sunk in satan's snare,
When his pitying creator
Did this second tree prepare,
Destined, many ages later,
The first evil to repair.

3. Hoc ópus nóstræ salútis
Ordo depopóscerat:
Multifórmis proditóris
Ars ut ártem fálleret:
Et medélam férret inde,
Hóstis unde læserat. Crux.

3. Such the order God appointed
When for sin He would atone;
To the serpent thus opposing
Schemes yet deeper than his own;
Thence the remedy procuring
Whence the fatal wound had come.

4. Quando vénit ergo sácri

4. So when now a length the fullness
Of the sacred time drew nigh,
Then the Son who moulded all things
Left His Father's throne on high.
From a virgin's womb appearing,
Clothed in our mortality.

5. Vágit ínfans inter árcta
Cónditus præsépia:
Mémbra pánnis involúta
Vírgo Máter álligat:
Et Dei mánus pedésque
Strícta cíngt fáscia. Crux.

Sponte líbera Redémptor
Passióni déditus,
Agnus in Crúcis levátur
Immolándus stípite. Dúlce.

Quo lavántur flúmine! Crux.

Dúlce.

5. All within a lowly manger,
Lo, a tender babe He lies!
See His gentle Virgin Mother
Lull to sleep his infant cries;
While the limbs of God incarnate
Round with swathing bands she ties.

6. Thus did Christ to perfect manhood
In our mortal flesh attain;
Then of His free choice He goes
To a death of bitter pain;
And as a lamb, upon the altar
Of the cross for us is slain.

7. Lo, with gall His thirst He quenches;
See the thorns upon His brow,
Nails His tender flesh are rending:
See, his side is opened now,
Whence to cleanse the whole creation
Streams of blood and water flow.

8. Lofty tree, bend down your branches
To embrace your sacred load;
Oh, relax the native tension
Of that all too rigid wood;
Gently, gently bear the members
Of your dying King and God.

9. Tree which solely was found worthy
Earth's great victim to sustain,
Harbour from the raging tempest,
Ark, that saved the world again,
Tree with sacred blood anointed
Of the lamb for sinners slain.

10. Honour, blessing everlasting
To the immortal Deity;
To the Father, Son and Spirit,
Equal praises ever be;
Glory through the earth and heaven
To the Trinity in Unity.
Amen.

3. Loose the bonds that chain us,
Darkened eyes enlighten,
Clouded prospects brighten,
Heavenly mercies gain us.

4. For thy sons thou carest;
Offer Christ our praying—
Still thy word obeying—
Whom on earth thou barest.

5. Purer, kinder maiden
God did never fashion;
Pureness and compassion
Grant to hearts sin laden.

6. From that sin release us,
Shield us, heavenward faring;—
Heaven, that is but sharing
In thy joy with Jesus.

7. Honour, praise and merit
To our God address we;
Three in One confess we,
Father Son and Spirit.

Let us devoutly
Sing songs of joy.

The world is renewed

Has been passed through;
Whence the light has risen,
Salvation is found.

Sing praises at this time of purification
Let us bless the Lord:
Greetings to our King.

Battle is o'er

BATTLE is o'er, hell's armies flee;
Raise we the cry of victory
With abounding joy resounding, alleluia.

2. Christ, who endured the shameful tree,
O'er death triumphant welcome we,
Our adoring praise outpouring, alleluia.

3. On the third morn fom death rose he,
Clothed with what light in heaven shall be,
Our unswerving faith deserving, alleluia.

4. Hell's gloomy gates yield up their key,
Paradise door thrown wide we see;
Never-tiring be our choiring, alleluia.

5. Lord by the stripes men laid on thee,
Grant us to live from death set free,
This our greeting still repeating, alleluia.

Hail Queen of heaven

HAIL, Queen of heav'n, the ocean star,
Guard of the wand'rer here below;
Thrown on life's surge, we claim thy care–
Save us from peril and from woe.
Mother of Christ, star of the sea,
Pray for the wanderer, pray for me.

2. O gentle, chaste and spotless maid,
We sinners make our prayers through thee;
Remind thy Son that He has paid
The price of our iniquity.
Virgin most pure, star of the sea,
Pray for the sinner, pray for me.

3. Sojourners in this vale of tears,
To thee, blest advocate, we cry:
Pity our sorrows, calm our fears,
And soothe with hope our misery.
Refuge in grief, star of the sea,
Pray for the mourner, pray for me.

4. And while to Him who reigns above,
In Godhead One, in Persons Three,
The source of life, of grace of love,
Homage we pay on bended knee;
Do thou bright queen, star of the sea,
Pray for thy children, pray for me.

To Jesus' Heart

To Jesus' Heart all burning
With fervent love for men,
My heart with fondest yearning
Shall raise its joyful strain.

Ant. While ages course along,
Blest be with loudest song
The Sacred Heart of Jesus
By every heart and tongue.

2. O Heart, for me on fire
With love no man can speak,
My yet untold desire
God gives me for Thy sake.

And earth's false glare is done;
Still, Sacred Heart, in dying
I'll say I'm all Thy own.
